FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION and RULE
 23 CLASS ACTION
 COMPLAINT

Jury Trial
 Jury Demand
 Demanded

Plaintiff, CECILIO GARCIA (hereinafter, "Plaintiff"), on behalf of himself and other similarly situated employees, by and through his undersigned attorneys, Cilenti & Cooper, PLLC, files this Complaint against defendants WOGIES INC. d/b/a WOGIES BAR & GRILL ("WOGIES"), WBGBK INC. d/b/a WOGIES BAR & GRILL ("WBGBK") (collectively, the "Corporate Defendants"), and AARON B. HOFFMAN (collectively, the "Defendants"), and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff alleges that, pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (a) unpaid overtime compensation, (b) liquidated damages, (c) prejudgment and post-judgment interest, and (d) attorneys' fees and costs.

2. Plaintiff further alleges that, pursuant to the New York Labor Law, he is entitled to recover from the Defendants: (a) unpaid overtime compensation, (b) liquidated damages and civil penalties pursuant to the New York Labor Law and the New York State Wage Theft Prevention Act, (c) prejudgment and post-judgment interest, and (d) attorneys' fees and costs.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this controversy pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b), 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1337 and 1343, and has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

4. Venue is proper in the Southern District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the conduct making up the basis of the complaint took place in this judicial district.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff is a resident of New York County, New York.

6. Defendant, WOGIES, is a foreign business corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, with a principal place of business at 39 Greenwich Street, New York, New York 10014.

7. Defendant, WOGIES, has authority to, and does conduct a substantial amount of business in New York.

8. Defendant, WBGBK, is a domestic business corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, with a principal place of business at 44 Trinity Place, New York, New York 10006.

9. Defendant, AARON B. HOFFMAN, is the Chief Executive Officer, owner, shareholder, director, supervisor, managing agent, and proprietor of the Corporate Defendants, who actively participates in the day-to-day operations of the Corporate Defendants and acted intentionally and maliciously and is an employer pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d) and Regulations promulgated thereunder, 29 C.F.R. § 791.2, as well as New York Labor Law § 2 and the Regulations thereunder, and is jointly and severally liable with the Corporate Defendants.

10. Defendant, AARON B. HOFFMAN, exercises control over the terms and conditions of his worker's employment in that he has and has had the power to: (i) hire and fire employees, (ii) determine rates and methods of pay, (iii) determine work schedules, (iv) supervise and control the work of the employees, and (v) otherwise affect the quality of the employees' employment.

11. Defendant, AARON B. HOFFMAN, is present on the premises of the Corporate Defendants on a daily basis, and actively supervises the work of the employees, and mandates that all issues concerning the employees' employment – including hours worked and pay received – be authorized and approved by him.

12. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to the allegations contained herein, the Corporate Defendants – either jointly or individually were, and continue to be, “enterprises engaged in commerce” within the meaning of the FLSA in that they (i) have and have had employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, or that handle, sell, or otherwise work on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce, and (ii) have and have had an annual gross volume of sales of not less than $500,000.

13. Defendants employed Plaintiff from in or about January 2014 until on or about October 31, 2016 to work as a non-exempt kitchen helper/food preparer, grill cook, and porter for each of Defendants’ restaurants known as Wogies Bar & Grill located at 39 Greenwich Street, New York, New York (the “Greenwich Street Restaurant”) and 44 Trinity Place, New York, New York (the “Trinity Place Restaurant”).

14. The work performed by Plaintiff was directly essential to the business operated by Defendants.

15. Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff his lawfully earned overtime compensation in direct contravention of the FLSA and New York Labor Law.

16. Plaintiffs have satisfied all conditions precedent to the institution of this action, or such conditions have been waived.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

17. Defendant AARON B. HOFFMAN actively participates in the day-to-day operation of the Corporate Defendants. For instance, Mr. Hoffman personally supervises and directs the work of the employees, instructs the employees how to perform their jobs, and corrects and/or reprimands the employees for any errors made.

18. Defendant, AARON B. HOFFMAN, creates and approves all crucial business policies, including decisions concerning the number of hours the employees work, the amount of pay that the employees are entitled to receive, and the manner and method by which the employees are to be paid.

19. The Corporate Defendants are associated as a single enterprise, utilizing Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees in a fungible and interchangeable manner as workers in the business operated by the Defendants.

20. The Corporate Defendants each engage in related activities, namely, providing restaurant services to the general public for profit. The Corporate Defendants shared Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees, acted in the interest of each other with respect to employees, paid their employees by the same plan or scheme, and are under common control.

21. The Corporate Defendants are controlled by the same owner, or owner group, operating as a unified operation and, upon information and belief, each provide mutually supportive services to the substantial advantage of the other such that each entity is operationally interdependent of each other and, therefore, may be treated as a single enterprise.

22. In or about January 2014, Defendants hired Plaintiff to work as a non-exempt kitchen helper/food preparer, grill cook, and porter.

23. At the time of his hire, Plaintiff was assigned to work five (5) days per week at the Trinity Place Restaurant, and one (1) day at the Greenwich Street Restaurant.

24. After approximately one (1) month, Plaintiff was assigned to work six (6) days per week at the Trinity Place Restaurant, but would continue to occasionally be assigned to work at the Greenwich Street Restaurant on an as-needed basis.

25. After approximately four (4) months, Plaintiff discontinued working as a porter, but continued to work as a grill cook and kitchen helper/food preparer.

26. Plaintiff worked for the Defendants in those capacities until on or about October 31, 2016.

27. Neither at the time of his hire, nor at any time thereafter upon receiving a pay increase, was Plaintiff provided with a wage notice indicating his regular and overtime rate of pay and regular payday.

28. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with proper weekly wage statements indicating, among other things, hours worked and rates paid.

29. During the course of his employment, Plaintiff worked over forty (40) hours per week.

30. Throughout the entirety of his employment, Plaintiff worked six (6) days per week, and his shift consisted of eight (8) hours per day Monday through Thursday from 5:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m.; and nine (9) hours per day on Friday and Saturday from 5:00 p.m. until 2:00 a.m.

31. From the beginning of his employment and continuing through in or about February 2014, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $510 per week (paid bi-weekly) straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $12.75 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

32. Beginning in or about March 2014 and continuing through in or about April 2014, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $550 per week (paid bi-weekly) straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $13.75 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

33. Beginning in or about May 2014 and continuing through in or about June 2014, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $590 per week (paid bi-weekly) straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $14.75 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

34. Beginning in or about July 2014 and continuing through in or about August 2014, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $630 per week straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $15.75 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

35. Beginning in or about September 2014 and continuing through in or about December 2014, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $670 per week straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $16.75 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

36. Beginning in or about January 2015 and continuing through in or about October 2015, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $720 per week straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $18 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

37. Beginning in or about November 2015 and continuing through in or about December 2015, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $740 per week straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $18.50 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

38. Beginning in or about January 2016 and continuing through the remainder of his employment on or about October 31, 2016, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid at the rate of $770 per week straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty (50) hours per week (for a regular rate of pay of $19.25 per hour). Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

39. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in direct violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

40. At all relevant times, upon information and belief, and during the course of Plaintiff's employment, Defendants failed to maintain accurate and sufficient wage and hour records.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

41. Plaintiff brings this action individually and as class representative on behalf of himself and all other current and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by Defendants since November 9, 2013 (the "Collective Action Period"), and who were compensated at rates less than the statutory rate of time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek (the "Collective Action Members").

42. The collective action class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts upon which the calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of the Defendants, upon information and belief, there are more than forty (40) Collective Action Members who worked for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not be likely to file individual suits because they lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this matter should be certified as a collective action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

43. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members and has retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the fields of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

44. This action should be certified as a collective action because the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of either inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class, or adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudication, or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

45. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as a collective action.

46. Questions of law and fact common to the members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the common questions of law and fact common to Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members within the meaning of the FLSA;

- b. Whether Defendants failed to keep true and accurate wage and hour records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members;
- c. What proof of hours worked is sufficient where the employer fails in its duty to maintain time records;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, in violation of the FLSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- e. Whether Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that terms is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- f. Whether Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, liquidated and statutory damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements.

47. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

48. Plaintiff and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by the Defendants' wrongful conduct.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

49. Plaintiff sues on his own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rules 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

50. Plaintiff brings his New York Labor Law claims on behalf of all persons who were employed by Defendants at any time since November 9, 2010 (the "Class Period”) who were non-exempt employees within the meaning of the New York Labor Law and have not been paid statutory overtime compensation in violation of the New York Labor Law (the “Class”).

51. Upon information and belief, the persons in the Class identified herein are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the identity and precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts upon which the calculation of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants, the Class consists of all non-managerial current and former employees and, therefore, is so numerous that joinder is impracticable and most of whom would not be likely to file individual suits because they lack financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims.

52. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class, and a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation, where individuals lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against a corporate defendant.

53. Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

54. Plaintiff has committed himself to pursuing this action and has retained counsel experienced in employment law and class action litigation.

55. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the NY Class members. Plaintiff understands that, as class representative, he assumes a fiduciary responsibility to the Class and Collective Action Members to represent their interests fairly and adequately, and that he must consider the interests of the Class and Collective Action Members just as he would represent and consider his own interests, and that he may not favor his own interests over those of the Class or Collective Action Members.

56. Plaintiff recognizes that any resolution of a class action lawsuit, including any settlement or dismissal thereof, must be in the best interests of the Class and Collective Action Members. Plaintiff understands that in order to provide adequate representation, he must remain informed of litigation developments and he understands that he may be called upon to testify in depositions and at trial.

57. Plaintiff has the same interests in this matter as all other members of the Class and Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class.

58. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over any questions solely affecting the individual members of the Class, including but not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class members within the meaning of the New York Labor Law;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to keep true and accurate wage and hour records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the Class members;
- c. What proof of hours worked is sufficient where the employer fails in its duty to maintain time records;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, in violation of the New York Labor Law and the regulations promulgated thereunder;

- e. Whether Defendants' violations of the New York Labor Law are willful as that term is used within the context of the New York Labor Law; and,
- f. Whether Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, liquidated and statutory damages, interest, costs, attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

COUNT I

[Violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act]

59. Plaintiff re-alleges and re-avers each and every allegation and statement contained in paragraphs "1" through "58" of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

60. At all relevant times, upon information and belief, Defendants were and continue to be an employer engaged in interstate commerce and/or the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206(a) and 207(a). Further, Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members are covered individuals within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206(a) and 207(a).

61. At all relevant times, Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members within the meaning of the FLSA.

62. Upon information and belief, during each of the years relevant to the allegations herein, the Corporate Defendants – either jointly or severally, have had gross revenues in excess of $500,000.

63. Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members were entitled to be paid at the rate of time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of the maximum hours provided for in the FLSA.

64. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members overtime compensation in the lawful amount for all hours worked in excess of the maximum hours provided for in the FLSA.

65. At all relevant times, Defendants had, and continue to have a policy and practice of refusing to pay overtime compensation at the statutory rate of time and one-half to Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per work week, which violated and continues to violate the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., including 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a)(1) and 215(a).

66. Defendants knowingly and willfully disregarded the provisions of the FLSA as evidenced by their failure to compensate Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members at the statutory overtime rate of time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week, when they knew or should have known such was due and that non-payment of overtime compensation would financially injure Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members.

67. As a result of Defendants' failure to properly record, report, credit and/or compensate its employees, including Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members, Defendants have failed to make, keep and preserve records with respect to each of its employees sufficient to determine the wages, hours and other conditions and practices of employment in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S.A. §§ 201 et seq., including 29 U.S.C. §§ 211(c) and 215(a).

68. Defendants failed to properly disclose or apprise Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members of their rights under the FLSA.

69. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the FLSA, Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members are entitled to liquidated damages pursuant to the FLSA.

70. Due to the reckless, willful and unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members suffered damages in an amount not presently ascertainable of unpaid overtime compensation, an equal amount as liquidated damages, and prejudgment interest thereon.

71. Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members are entitled to an award of their reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

COUNT II
[Violation of the New York Labor Law]

72. Plaintiff re-alleges and re-avers each and every allegation and statement contained in paragraphs "1" through "71" of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

73. Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class members within the meaning of New York Labor Law §§ 2 and 651.

74. Defendants knowingly and willfully violated the rights of Plaintiff and the Class members by failing to pay Plaintiff and the Class members overtime compensation at the rate of time and one-half for each hour worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek.

75. Defendants failed to properly disclose or apprise Plaintiff and the Class members of their rights under the New York Labor Law.

76. Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Class members with a statement with every payment of wages listing gross wages, deductions and net wages, in contravention of New York Labor Law § 195(3) and New York State Department of Labor Regulations § 146-2.3.

77. Defendants failed to keep true and accurate records of hours worked by each employee covered by an hourly minimum wage rate, the wages paid to all employees, and other similar information in contravention of New York Labor Law § 661.

78. Defendants failed to establish, maintain, and preserve for not less than six (6) years payroll records showing the hours worked, gross wages, deductions, and net wages for each employee, in contravention of the New York Labor Law § 194(4), and New York State Department of Labor Regulations § 146-2.1.

79. At the time of their hiring, Defendants failed to notify Plaintiff and the Class members of their rates of pay and their regularly designated payday, in contravention of New York Labor Law § 195(1).

80. Due to the Defendants' New York Labor Law violations, Plaintiff and the Class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their unpaid overtime compensation, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements of this action, pursuant to New York Labor Law §§ 663(1), 198.

81. Plaintiff and the Class members are also entitled to liquidated damages pursuant to New York Labor Law § 663(1), as well as civil penalties and/or liquidated damages pursuant to the New York State Wage Theft Prevention Act.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, CECILIO GARCIA, on behalf of himself and all similarly situated Collective Action Members and Class members, respectfully requests that this Court grant the following relief:

- (a) An award of unpaid overtime compensation due under the FLSA and New York Labor Law;
- (b) An award of liquidated damages as a result of Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216;
- (c) An award of liquidated damages as a result of Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation pursuant to the New York Labor Law and the New York State Wage Theft Prevention Act;
- (d) An award of civil penalties pursuant to the New York State Wage Theft Prevention Act;
- (e) An award of prejudgment and post-judgment interest;
- (f) An award of costs and expenses associated with this action, together with reasonable attorneys' and expert fees; and
- (g) Such other and further relief as this Court determines to be just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff demands trial by jury on all issues.
